

THIRD BULLETIN (November 18, 2016)

Dear colleagues.

The 8th International Workshop on Multiple Partonic Interactions at the LHC (MPI@LHC) is approaching. We will meet us soon in San Cristóbal de las Casas, Chiapas.

New conference venue

Unfortunately, a few days ago the San Agustín Auditorium suffered damages and local authorities decided to cancel all the academic activities for the rest of this year. Therefore, we inform that the conference venue has been moved to the auditorium Giralda of Hotel Rincón del Arco.

Scientific program

The timetable is now available on indico:

<https://indico.nucleares.unam.mx/event/1100/timetable/#20161128>

Please consider that the agenda has been organized by topics, hence, little room for changes is expected.

Registration fee

The conference fee is 250€ for regular participants and 65€ for accompanying persons.

* You must pay in cash at the conference desk.

 There are many ATM around the main square of San Cristóbal de las Casas.

Therefore, you can withdraw and pay using local currency at the rate of the day.

Transportation from Airport to San Cristóbal

Transportation to San Cristóbal will be provided to those who requested it, and only for the colleagues arriving on 27/11. One organizer will be at the airport to coordinate the transportation of small groups. This means that probably you will wait a bit for other participants.

If you arrive before 27/11, please take care of your transportation. There are two possibilities.

* Take a bus Cristóbal Colón which costs 218 MXN (around 10€) per person. The timetable can be found below.
